II Timothy 4:6-8

"For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand. I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing. "

"Our untiring Shepherd has not left us alone to struggle with temptation and finally be crushed by our burdens. Though we cannot see Him, by faith we can hear Him saying, 'Do not be afraid; I am with you. I have shared your sorrow, your struggles, your temptations. I have cried tears like yours—I know the pain that is too deep to share with anyone else. You are not alone.'
—Messiah, Jerry D. Thomas, adapted from The Desire of Ages

Thank you for coming today to celebrate Earl Baumgartner's life. Please share your memories, video tributes or pictures of Earl at: earlbaumgartner.com. Cards are available in the foyer for short stories. His family longingly looks forward to seeing him again when Jesus returns. As he would say, "See you in Heaven!"

Acknowledgements

The Baumgartner family acknowledges with sincere appreciation the comforting messages, floral tributes, and other expressions of kindness during this time of bereavement.

Thanks to the Lansdale Church for hosting the memorial service, Jen Fales for coordinating the reception, and thanks to all providing food. Thanks to Randy and Shari Nash for planning the Pathfinder Color Guard and assistance with the service.

Thanks to Darryl Gottschalk for the sound and video. A heartfelt thanks to all who helped make today special.

May God bless you and many thanks!

Earl, with his wife Kay, two sisters Evie and Dolly and brother-in-law Ralph on vacation in Québec, Canada
